

I. READING

Hi Chloe,
How's life in Toronto? I hope you are doing just fine.
I'm writing to tell you about a fantastic event. Have you ever heard of something called 'Flash Mob'? I hadn't until last week. I was shopping with my mum in The Seaway Mall just before Christmas. We were having lunch at one of the bars when something amazing happened. There was a girl who was talking on the phone when suddenly she started singing Hallelujah – everybody looked at her with surprise. I thought she was crazy but then other people joined her. After a few seconds there were more than twenty of them singing! It was awesome! They looked like average customers but they were professional singers. Of course some people took out their cellphones and started filming the event. And guess what? Somebody put a video on the Internet. You can go to youtube.com and search for Christmas Food Court Flash Mob. If you watch it carefully, you will see me there!
Anyway, when are you coming to Welland? I miss you! Winter is beautiful in Ontario now.

Kisses,
Gina
